

Complaints Handling Disclosure

There is a requirement as an AFCA Member to promote your membership of the scheme:

RG 271.132 Firms should widely publicise information about how and where complaints may be made, by: (a) publishing their complaints policy online and making it available in hard copy on request. Information about the IDR process should be readily available, not just at the time a consumer wishes to make a complaint.

The following disclosures should be included in the website:

Internal Dispute Resolution (IDR) Process

This policy provides information about our internal dispute resolution (IDR) process. Our IDR service is provided to you free of charge.

NATIONAL FINANCE CONNECTIONS PTY LTD | ACN 661 296 457 | Australian Credit Licence 543046 (we/us/our) believes that it is essential for us to have the ability, authority and proper training to hear and respond appropriately to any complaints or disputes raised by our customers.

How you may lodge a complaint

You can lodge complaints by contacting:

Mr Rob Ryan | Chief Operations Officer National Finance Connections Pty Ltd Avaya House, Level 9, 123 Epping Rd Macquarie Park NSW 2113

T: 02 8985 7358

E: complaints@vikingaggregation.com.au

You may also lodge a complaint by speaking to any representative of our business who will refer you to the Complaints Officer. You should explain the details of your complaint as clearly as you can. You may do this verbally or in writing.

To assist complainants who might need additional assistance to lodge a complaint, we:

- offer multiple methods for lodging complaints, including phone, email, letter, social media, in person, or online;
- do not require complaints to be in writing;
- ensure that information provided to the public about our IDR process, including this policy, is available in a range of languages and formats (including large print and audiotape);
- provide training to all staff (not just complaints management staff) to enable staff to be able to identify, support and assist complainants who need additional assistance, including cross-cultural training; and
- allow representatives to lodge complaints on behalf of complainants, including financial counsellors, legal representatives, family members and friends.

Dealing with complaints

Our process for dealing with complaints is as follows:

Acknowledgement: We will acknowledge receipt of your complaint promptly – that is, within one business day of receiving it, or as soon as practicable.

Assessment and investigation: We will review your complaint carefully and promptly, taking such steps and reviewing such documents as reasonably necessary.

Complaints Handling Disclosure

IDR response: We will provide an ‘IDR response’, which is a written communication that sets out the final outcome of your complaint through our IDR process and your right to take your complaint to AFCA if you are not satisfied with the IDR response. If we reject or partially reject your complaint, we will clearly set out the reasons for our decision.

Response timeframes

Generally, we will provide an IDR response to you no later than 30 calendar days after receiving the complaint. However, for some specific types of credit-related complaints, the following response timeframes apply.

- Credit-related complaints involving default notices: No later than 21 calendar days after receiving the complaint;
- Credit-related complaints involving hardship notices or requests to postpone enforcement proceedings: No later than 21 calendar days after receiving the complaint. Exceptions apply
- if we do not have sufficient information to make a decision, or if we reach an agreement with you.

We do not need to provide an IDR response to you if we close your complaint by the end of the fifth business day after receipt because we have:

1. a) resolved the complaint to your satisfaction; or
2. b) given you an explanation and/or apology we can take no further action to reasonably address your complaint.

However, we must provide a written IDR response for complaints closed by the end of the fifth business day after receipt if:

1. a) the complainant requests a written response; or
2. b) the complaint is about hardship.

Our external dispute resolution scheme – AFCA

If we do not reach agreement on your complaint, you may refer your complaint to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA).

You can contact the AFCA scheme:

- by phone on 1800 931 678;
- by email at info@afca.org.au; or
- in writing to GPO Box 3, Melbourne VIC 3001.

The AFCA scheme is a free service established to provide you with an independent mechanism to resolve specific complaints.
